

The Blackduck City Council is a governing board of 5 councilors, all whom must reside within the city limits of Blackduck. Currently, the Blackduck City Council has declared a vacancy as a result of Councilor Stade's recent resignation. The vacancy will expire December 31st, 2018. A second vacancy remains open as a result of the 2016 General election. If you are a resident of Blackduck and have a strong desire to become involved with your local government, please submit a "letter of interest" to the Blackduck City Council, indicating your willingness to fill the vacancy. For more information on becoming a Blackduck City Councilor visit our website at <http://www.blackduckmn.com/city-of-blackduck/job-announcements/>.